

CONTENTS

Why I Wrote This Book	xxiii
Acknowledgments	xxxI
Foreword by Thomas L. Sager, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Dupont	xxxvii
Introduction: The Key to Understanding This Book	xxxix
PART I
STRUCTURAL SOLUTIONS FOR LEGAL EMPLOYERS	1
CHAPTER 1
CHANGE IS GOOD	3
Change Comes to the Legal Profession	4
Why the Billable Hour No Longer Works	4
Why the Billable Hour Is So Entrenched	6
The Economic Downturn—Furthering the Push to Eliminate Billable Hours	6
Clients Demanding Change	7
Law Firm Talent: Further Undermining the Stability of the Existing Model	8
Disaggregation and Globalization of Work	10
Intersection of Commoditization and Technology	11
CHAPTER 2
THE RISE OF NEW MODELS OF LEGAL PRACTICE	17
Axiom and Other New Law Firm Models	18
Virtual Law Firms	20
Firms Abandoning the Billable Hour	23
Hybrid Firms	25
Blended Professional Services Firms	25
Publishing Law Firm	26
Small Firm Alternatives to Practice	26
Alternative Hour Firms	26
Flex-Time Firms	27
Women-Owned Firms	27

Legal Process Outsourcing (LPO)	27
The Junior Lawyer Fallout	30
CHAPTER 3
THE LARGE LAW FIRM OF THE FUTURE	37
Alternative Fees	38
Fix or Flat Fees/Unit Pricing	39
Success, Bonus, or Incentive Fees	40
Holdbacks	41
Retainers	41
Contingent Fees	41
Alternative Fee Variations of the Billable Hour	41
Discounted Hourly Rates	41
Volume Discounts	42
Blended Rates	42
Frozen Rates	42
Per Diem Rates	42
Fee Cap	42
Hybrid	43
Alternative Fee Opportunities for Women and Work/Life Balance	43
Changes in Legal Staffing	44
Use of Temporary Attorneys	44
Shrinking Associate Classes and Increasing Use of Staff and Non-Partnership Attorneys	45
Levels/Tiers of Associates	46
Temporary, Staff, and Non-Partnership Track Attorney Work: The Impact on Women	46
Compensation	49
Changes in Recruiting	50
Contemplating Outside Investors	51
Ultimate Challenge Facing Large Law Firms: Determining Value	51
CHAPTER 4
REDESIGNING LAWYERS' CAREER PATHS	61
CORE COMPETENCIES	62
Core Competency Programs	64

Training, Evaluations, and Promotions	64
Compensation	66
Billing Rates	66
Elimination of Bias	67
Impact on Women	68
Impact on Reduced-Hour Lawyers	69
Compensation	69
Accountability	70
Contribution	70
Misconstruing Work/Life Balance as Lack of Aspiration	71
Progression and Promotion	73
Apprenticeship and Training	74
Changes to Law Schools and Law Student Paths	77
Remaining Challenge: Who Will Train Law Students and Incoming Lawyers?	81

CHAPTER 5

DESIGNING A WOMAN-FRIENDLY EMPLOYER	89
Why Design a Woman-Friendly Employer?	90
How to Design a Woman-Friendly Employer	90
Workforce Profile	92
Representation	92
Recruitment and Attrition	93
Family-Friendly Benefits and Policies	95
Parental Leave	95
Phase Back	96
Childcare	97
Reentry	97
Retirement	98
Flexibility	98
□ FLEXIBLE AND REDUCED HOUR ARRANGEMENTS	99
Reduced-Hour Usage	100
Reduced-Hour Promotion	101
Full-Time Flex-Time	101
Other Flexible Work Arrangements	102
Leadership, Compensation, and Advancement of Women	103

Leadership	103
Promotion	105
Compensation	106
Development and Retention of Women	107
Training and Business Development	107
Mentoring	109
Diversity and Accountability	110
Affinity Groups	110
Accountability	112
CHAPTER 6
WHY WORK/LIFE WORKS: THE
BUSINESS CASE	119
Reduced-Hour Lawyers Are Profitable	120
With Overhead Costs, Reduced-Hour
Lawyers Are Still Profitable	122
Reduced-Hour Schedules Provide an Economic Cushion	122
Reduced-Hour Lawyers Are Efficient and Productive	123
Clients Demand Diversity and Consistency	123
Competition to Recruit and Retain the Best
Talent Requires Flexibility	125
Qualitative Benefits for Law Firms to Support Flexibility	126
Flexibility Brings Opportunities	126
APPENDIX A
BALANOMICS™ REPORTING FORM TEMPLATE	133
CHAPTER 7
CREATING A WORK/LIFE-FRIENDLY EMPLOYER	139
Reasonable Hours for All Lawyers	141
Protecting Vacation	141
Supporting Parental and Other Leaves	142
□ COMPONENTS OF A PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY	143
Instituting Phase-Back from Parental Leave	144
Childcare and Eldercare Offerings and Support	144
Implementing Successful Reentry Policies	145

Cultivate the Relationship with Lawyers Who Want to Leave	146
Formalize a Reentry Policy and Maintain a Relationship with Lawyers Who Leave	147
Actively Recruit Reentry Lawyers Back to Work	148
Ensure a Successful Return	149
Phased Retirement Program	149
Work/Life Infrastructure	150

CHAPTER 8

MAKING FLEXIBLE AND REDUCED-HOUR

SCHEDULES WORK	153
Common Complaints and Concerns about Flexible and Reduced Hours	154
Five Ground Rules to Lay the Foundation	155
Ten Principles for Successful Flexible and Reduced-Hour Policies	156
1. Laying the Foundation	156
Written Policies	156
Proposal	158
The “Flexibility Sit-Down”	159
2. Leadership and Openness	161
3. Mutual Flexibility and Ongoing Communication	162
4. Support and Monitoring	163
5. Assignments and Advancement	164
6. Compensation	165
7. Nonbillable Contribution	167
8. Technology	167
9. Training	169
10. Track, Benchmark, Review, and Reassess	169
□ THE FLEXIBLE AND REDUCED HOUR CHECKLIST	171

CHAPTER 9

FACING FACTS: RECONSTRUCTING THE BILLABLE HOUR	177
Why Face the FACTS?	177
Target Hours—The “T” in FACTS	178
Multiple Target Hours	179
Fixed Hours—The “F” in FACTS	181

Annualized Hours—The “A” in FACTS	183
Core Hours—The “C” in FACTS	183
Shared Hours—The “S” in FACTS	187
The Best Venues for Law Firm Job Shares	188
Proposing a Job Share	190
Making a Job Share Work	190
Envisioning the Future Impact of Job Shares	192
Just the FACTS	193
CHAPTER 10
REDUCED HOURS AND OTHER ALTERNATIVE COST SAVING
MEASURES IN A RECESSION	197
Reduced Hours and Alternatives to Avoid Layoffs	198
Introducing Balanomics™—Linking Reduced
Hours and Employer Profitability	199
Balanomics™ Use of the NERA Economic Model
Shows Increased Firm Profitability	200
The Balanomics™ Findings Tie into FACTS	204
Telecommuting and Rethinking Office Space	206
Reengineering Talent and Filling Gaps	208
APPENDIX B
PROFITABILITY MODEL: HERE’S THE BOTTOM LINE	213
PART II
ADVICE FOR LAWYERS
AND LAW STUDENTS	217
CHAPTER 11
CONNECT FOUR: MAXIMIZING YOUR
PRODUCTIVITY AND SATISFACTION	219
Four Personal/Environmental Factors Impacting
Your Productivity and Satisfaction	220
Nature of the Work	220
Venue	221
Home	221
You	221
Four Work/Life Goals	222
Flexibility	223

Predictability	223
Reduced Hours	223
Proximity	224
Managing Personal/Environmental Factors and Work/Life Goals	224
Using the Productivity/Satisfaction Index	225
Connect Four: The Productivity/Satisfaction Sample Index	226
APPENDIX C
CONNECT FOUR: THE PRODUCTIVITY/     SATISFACTION INDEX	229
Instructions for Use	229
CHAPTER 12
NAVIGATING PARENTAL LEAVE	231
When to Have a Baby	231
Disclosing Your Pregnancy	232
If Your Employer Has No Parental Leave Policy or an Obsolete One	234
How Much Time Should You Take?	234
Whether to Reduce Your Work or Hours Before Your Leave	235
Establishing the Right Childcare	236
Plan Your Role While on Leave	237
Preparing for Parental Leave	238
☐ PARENTAL LEAVE PUNCH LIST	238
Staying Current While on Leave	240
How to Transition Back Effectively	240
CHAPTER 13:
FLEXIBLE AND REDUCED HOURS: READY; SET; GO!	243
Ready?	244
Figuring Out Your Priorities	244
Challenges and Benefits of Working             Reduced Hours	245
Set?	246
Proposing a Flexible or Reduced Hour Schedule	246
1. When Is It Too Early to Ask?	246

2. What Is the Right Schedule or Percentage of Hours to Work?	247
3. What Should a Proposal to Work Flexible or Reduced Hours Entail?	249
4. What If Your Request Is Denied or Your Employer Is Skeptical?	252
Go!	252
The Nitty-Gritty of Working Flexible and Reduced Hours Successfully	252
1. Educate.	252
2. Be indispensable.	253
3. Be flexible and communicative.	253
4. Gain favorable assignments.	254
5. Develop meaningful relationships.	254
6. Be a team player.	254
7. Delegate.	255
8. Contribute.	255
9. Be visible.	255
10. Have good coverage.	255
11. Make it seamless.	256
12. Adjust expectations.	256
13. Be a leader.	257
14. Seek promotion.	257
15. Self advocate.	258
16. Reevaluate and adapt.	258

CHAPTER 14

THE ABCS OF TIME MANAGEMENT	261
Time Management Tips to Tailor to Your Life	261
□ THE ABCS OF TIME MANAGEMENT	262

CHAPTER 15

ADVICE FOR REENTRY LAWYERS AND LAWYERS IN TRANSITION	271
Defining Reentry Lawyers and Lawyers in Transition	272
Wait! Before You Go!	273

While You Are on Leave	274
□ REENTRY AND LAWYER IN TRANSITION AT-HOME To-Do List	274
Fears of Reentry Lawyers and Lawyers in Transition	275
Addressing Employer Hiring Concerns	276
Choosing the Right Work Venue	279
Using Flexibility as an Asset to Get Back to Work	280
Investing in the Process	281
Networking Your Way Back to Work	282
The Interview	286
Once You Have Landed the Job	286
CHAPTER 16
“BLUEPRINTING” WOMEN LAW STUDENTS AND LAWYERS FOR SUCCESS	289
Selecting, Creating, and Ensuring a Woman- Friendly Employer	290
The Cheat Sheet	291
“Blueprinting”—Training Women Law Students and Junior Lawyers for Success	293
Why Is Blueprinting Necessary?	294
Designing Your Blueprint	296
□ BLUEPRINTING FOR SUCCESS	297
APPENDIX D
THE CHEAT SHEET	303
CHAPTER 17
NETWORKING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT FOR WOMEN BEYOND RUBBER CHICKEN DINNERS	313
Networking Challenges for Women	314
Start with a Marketing Plan	316
Change the Networking Venue to One Where You Thrive	316
Maximize Marketing in the Activities in Which You Are Already Engaged	317

Translate Personal Relationships into Professional Dealings	318
Gain Access to Decision Makers and Become the Point Person	319
Do Excellent Work, Take Credit, and Network Internally	320
Additional Networking Skills and Strategies	321
Perfecting Your “Elevator Pitch”	321
Relationship-Building Tips	323

CHAPTER 18

STICKY GENDER AND GENERATIONAL ISSUES AMONG

WOMEN: DEVELOPING ADVOCATES IN WOMEN AND MEN

Challenges for Women Supporting Women	328
1. The Scarcity Concern	329
a. There’s Not Room for All of Us	329
2. The Generational Divide	330
a. This Is Not What I Fought For	330
b. I Succeeded in Shoulder Pads, Why Can’t You?	331
c. I’m Struggling Myself So How Can I Support You?	331
d. You’re Not the Role Model I’m Seeking	332
3. The Work/Life Conundrum	333
a. It Strikes a Nerve	333
b. You’re Tarnishing My Reputation and I Don’t Want to Pick Up Your Slack	334
c. That’s Not My Issue	335
Why Women Should Support Each Other	336
How Women Can More Effectively Support Each Other	336
Men as Proponents for Women	338

Conclusion	343
------------	-----

Index	345
-------	-----